FOREWORD

Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia (IRBM) would like to express our highest appreciation to the taxpayers who have fulfilled their tax responsibilities without fail every year. Your tax payment has contributed to the growth and improvement of the country's socioeconomic standing.

The Self Assessment System (SAS) was introduced to corporate taxpayers commencing from the Year of Assessment (Y/A) 2001. The primary objective of SAS is to improve the efficiency of national tax system and facilitate taxpayers in performing their tax responsibilities. Under SAS, taxpayers are responsible to self-assess and pay their tax respectively.

With the implementation of SAS, companies resident in Malaysia (including companies resident in Singapore paying Malaysian tax) are responsible to furnish the Company Return Form to the Director General of Inland Revenue (DGIR) under the provisions of the Income Tax Act 1967 (ITA 1967).

Sample of the return form, guide on how to fill out the return form and compute the chargeable income and tax payable are prepared to assist taxpayers.

19	Substantial change in shareholding and subsection 44(5A) applies	Refer to the relevant legal provisions, principles and guidelines as follows: • subsection 44(5A), 44(5B), 44(5C) and 44(5D); • special provision relating to section 44; • paragraph 75A, 75B and 75C Schedule 3; • special provision relating to paragraph 75A Schedule 3 ACP 1967; and • principles and guidelines which allow unabsorbed accumulated losses and capital allowances to be carried forward (from the IRBM Official Portal, https://www.hasil.gov.my) Substantial change in shareholding occurs if 50% or more of the shareholding on the last day of the basis period for a year of assessment in which the adjusted loss and capital allowance are ascertained is not the same as the shareholding on the first day of the basis period for the year of assessment in which that adjusted loss and capital allowance are allowable as deductions.
